WHAT IS EGYPT 21?

E21 (Egypt 21) is a movement of believers in Egypt and Germany and is affiliated with EMO, an organisation based in Germany [www.emo-wiesbaden.de].

It was borne out of friendship between cross-cultural Christians and nurtured by the Holy Spirit to promote co-operation between churches in both countries on Kingdom-Building projects.

The picture that perfectly illustrates E21 is a 'bridge made of air' connecting the two lands - a bridge over which people walk in both directions. God has gifted different believers with differing strengths and in coming together we fulfil His desires for us to function as a unified Body in Christ, a strategic partnership that blesses both parties.

The Egyptians bless their Western brothers and sisters by disciplining them in how to effectively share God's love and truth with people from other faiths, a skill in which they have much wisdom and experience (and which Europeans need very much).

The Germans can bless their Egyptian spiritual siblings with workers and resources in such things as helping the poorest of the poor. They can also help in projects involving effective witness through arts and culture (given how popular culture has quickly become the main marketplace of ideas in which the younger generations who live in Egypt exchange their thoughts and feelings).
